A. W. Couk and W. E. Orr, merchants and partners in trade under the firm name and style of Couk & Orr, assignees of G. D. Glass, who was assignee of W. S. Sage, who was assignee of P. H. Larmer and P. H. Allen, merchants and partners in trade under the firm name and style of P. H. Larmer & Company, complain of S. C. Burk, defendant, of a plea that he render to the said plaintiffs the sum of $20.39, with legal interest thereon from the 26th day of November 1893, which to the said plaintiffs he owes and from them unjustly detains. H. Larmer & Co., one day after the date of the said writing obligatory, the sum of $20.39. <sup>& waived his homestead exemption as to said debt.</sup> And the plaintiffs say, ~~after~~ after the making of the said writing obligatory, the said P. Glass made an endorsement on the said writing obligatory and subscribed his name thereto and thereby assigned the said writing obligatory to the said plaintiffs, whereof the said S. C. Burk hath not as yet paid the said sum of $20.39, or any part thereof, either to the said P. H. Larmer & Co., <sup>or their order</sup> before notice of their said assignment of the said writing obligatory, or to the said W. S. Sage after the said assignment to him of the said assignment thereof to the plaintiffs, or to the said plaintiffs since
